The Surprising Adventure

I was walking down the street when I saw a small wooden box by the road. Suddenly, I heard a voice say, Help! Let me out of here! To my surprise, the voice was coming from the box. I cautiously approached the box and slowly opened the lid and took a peek. I saw a little squirrel stuck in the box. I sighed with relief. I slowly tried pulling the squirrel out but the box opening was too small. However, I was not going to give up yet. So, I took some gardening tools and forced the box open. The little squirrel was so happy that jumped up and down with joy. After a few minutes the squirrel was tired so I figured that it was a good time for me to ask him how he ended up in the box. The squirrel said that he and his family were gathering food for the winter when a huge boulder crushed his home, he said that he kept all his nuts there and now had nothing to eat. He said that he had nowhere to live too. So, when he was walking on a garden path he caught the smell of a delicious nut high up in the tree he also said that he had found a box there that he and his family could use as a home but then when he got the nut and tried to push it inside he fell in and couldn't get out. I said that I was sorry that his home got hit by the boulder. I said that I would build a home for him and his family to stay and that I would provide food for them too. The squirrel asked me when he and his family should move in. I said that they could move in tomorrow the squirrel thanked me and left. When the squirrel arrived the next day, he brought his family with him he introduced me to everyone and I greeted them all and told them that their house was ready.

When they saw the cardboard house that I made they squealed with delight. The squirrel thanked me and scurried to join his family. Days passed and the squirrel and his family where as happy as can be. One day when I was roaming in the garden an evil wizard appeared, he said that his master required a pet and a squirrel was perfect. I suddenly realized the evil wizards plan he wanted to kidnap the squirrels and kill them. I said that he would have to get other squirrels as these were mine. The wizard cackled and disappeared into the air. before I knew it the wizard took me away but somebody heard the wizard can you guess who it was? Yes, It was my pet squirrels. They immediately got a rope and climbed up the tallest tree in the woods a squirrel tied my foot to the rope and pulled so hard that the wizard went tumbling onto the ground. Luckily for me I safely got to the ground. The wizard was not hurt or injured I was worried that he would come back for me but the squirrels had thought everything through. They climbed up the wizard back and dropped a potion which had the name TAKE AWAY FOREVER they sprinkled it onto the wizard and quickly hopped down to the ground before I knew it the wizard had vanished never to be seen again.

The mystery box

I was walking home and I saw a box and I was very curious to see what was inside that box. So, I went close to it and suddenly the box moved further. I was able to catch up with it and grabbed it. I opened it and I saw a magic lamp! When I rubbed the lamp, it teleported me into a forest. I was able to find a sign and I figured out that I was in the Amazon Rainforest! I found a small hut and I went inside. I rang the bell and a zombie came out!

I ran full speed and ended up at the bank of a river. I followed the river and found a small village. I asked for directions to the nearest city and it was almost night and the locals let me sleep in their house. In the morning, I was told to find another river, follow it, and then I will find a mountain and behind it there is the city of Rio De Janeiro. The year was 2050, so I could find a teleporting machine and teleport home.

I found the river and followed it, finally I saw a humongous mountain. I did not climb it. Instead, I went around it and then I saw some buildings. I started running there and entered a teleporting machine. I put the nearest teleporting machine to my home. I teleported there and finally, after 2 days in the jungle I made it home. That same lamp was there and I threw it in the garbage truck passing.

The End.

I went near it and it was very big from the inside! Inside the box was a big demon that had people in jail! But then the demon saw me and then turned the room into obstacles. I went inside the it and it turned into an impossible maze! After solving the maze, I had to go in the right door. I chose a door and it was the right door. Now I saw a weapon which was a very powerful sword! I took it and there was the devil that was going to throw the people! I went near the devil and slashed him but it was his brother! He had a magma body, face and legs but he was friendly. He said 'the devil is going to destroy the world!' He said he was in the workplace that was the door next to him. I went to the workplace and took the powerful sword and killed him. Finally, the world had peace but now I was stuck in the box. Suddenly the brother wasn't a brother at all but was a god! I realized that he was trapped in a magma body. He gave me stairs and I came out of the box. A man said' let's celebrate!'. They congratulated me and it was my special day.

The Mystery in the box

I was walking down the street when I saw a small wooden box by the road. Suddenly, I heard a voice say, "Help! Let me out of here!" To my surprise, the voice was coming from the box. When I opened the box, I saw an alien. He said that his name was Jadoo and he was from the planet Bong. He wore a raincoat; had 3 eyes and he could turn invisible and could read people's minds. He said that he had no friends and he was lost. He said he was exploring the solar system but his spaceship crashed into an asteroid and landed on earth and he landed in a back alley. He looked for food in the back alley but he found a very big, smelly and hairy monster who was chasing him and then he saw a small wooden box and hid in it but it was a trap and he got taped in the box.

He shouted "let me out of this box. I am very hungry and thirsty. Give me food and water!" That's why I opened the box and I found you Jadoo. Then I fixed Jadoo's spaceship and he said "Thank you for helping me fix my spaceship. Next time, you also come to planet Bong and I will introduce you to my friends. Bye".

The Fox and the Stork

One day, a selfish fox invited a stork for dinner. Stork was very happy with the invitation – she reached the fox's home on time and knocked at the door with her long beak. The fox took her to the dinner table and served some soup in shallow bowls for both of them. As the bowl was too shallow for the stork, she couldn't have soup at all. But, the fox licked up his soup quickly.

The stork was angry and upset, but she didn't show her anger and behaved politely. To teach a lesson to the fox, she then invited him for dinner the next day. She too served soup, but this time the soup was served in two tall narrow vases. The stork devoured the soup from her vase, but the fox couldn't drink any of it because of his narrow neck. The fox realized his mistake and went home famished.

Jimmy and his learning

One day , there was a boy named Jimmy. He does not like doing his homework. He always liked to play and his mother always had to tell “Jimmy, please do your homework”. But Jimmy always excused “five minutes mom”. One day when Jimmy was going to school, his mom said “Please listen to the teacher when you go to school”. Jimmy agreed. When he arrived to school and the teacher was teaching a math problem. That problem was difficult , so the teacher explained it in detail. But Jimmy thought he already knew everything and didn’t have to pay attention. He started playing with his eraser and pencils the entire class. When he came home, his mother said. “Please do your homework”. Jimmy said “Ok mom” and went to do his homework. His mother went inside and got busy in household chores. When he saw the homework, it was difficult for him. It was maths assignment. His mother’s phone was right next to him on the charger. He took the phone and cheated his way to the answers. The next day when the teacher checked his answers, all of them were correct and he told all his friends “None of you can be as smart as me”. All of his friends got extremely disappointed. On Thursday, mam took an assessment for everyone. That time when he thought to steal the answer there was no answer sheet. The answer sheet was with the teacher. His friends covered the sheet and didn’t allow Jimmy to see their answers. So , he randomly ticked the answer.

correct out of thirty five questions. The mother was very surprised that her son had got fewer marks, when he did the homework independently. She started thinking there was something really wrong. As she got home, she asked Jimmy, “How he did not answer the questions correctly”? Jimmy had no choice but to tell the truth. He said “Mother, I was just playing with the eraser when she was explaining and the homework was all correct, because I cheated from your phone”. His mother asked “Why did you do that”? Jimmy said “I thought I knew everything that is why I didn’t pay attention”. His mother said “Next time listen to your teacher what she is saying and then if you have a doubt ask the teacher”. Jimmy agreed. Next time, when the teacher was teaching something, Jimmy always listened to the teacher. The next month’s assessments he always got all correct. He also apologised to all his friends for bullying them .

Who would have left this much of food and clothes. I was wondering and searching but I didn't found any person who had left this box. Suddenly a bright light was shining on me, nobody else could see the light except me. I was puzzled who would have flashed that light ? I was shocked to see an angel appearing to me! An angel spoke to me that "I am St. GABRIEL AND I LEFT THIS BOX FOR YOU "then saint Gabriel disappeared I was very happy, and going to home excitedly but I saw some poor people they were wearing no clothes they didn't eat anything since morning, so I thought instead of I enjoying all the fun I can spread happiness all around so I gave it to the poor people. The boy told me that, "My name is Rim and I was going to play at the park, just then, a person who looked like a scary ghost. He put me in a box with a magical power, he put me in the box. I was frightened since that time and all thanks to you, that you got me out." I told him, "Sounds scary." They chatted for some time and then soon told bye to each other and left. Another sunny day, I was walking to my granny's home and did not look ahead and crashed to a tree. It. Was bleeding and just then Rim came to help me and made me better. He, to my surprise turned into God! He told that, I was testing you, how kind and generous you are and you totally passed the test! I will fulfil your one wish, tell me what is your wish?" The journey of the online schooling

Once there was a girl named siyona and she was going to school everyday, but suddenly in her school she noticed that there was a new virus that has come alive on earth but then after few days it entered Maharashtra and Mumbai so everyone was worried with what to do with education but after few months they thought about online schooling so basically on their devices they have to download an app called zoom so that the teachers can teach them and be the host of the meeting and the teachers can make them the host too and the name of the viruse is called as corona or covid -19 said siyona to her parents, so from then they started online schooling and did every thing online but it was fun doing every event and school said siyona to her parents at the end of her school year and she did everything till the pandemic was over.

Mystery box

while I was walking home I saw a box it was quite a big box lying near the signal. It looked torn from. The edges, maybe it accidentally fell from someone's bag. I was anxious to peek through the torn box but was a little hesitant as my father has warned me to avoid touching things that don't belong to us. I went a little closer and was relieved to see the amazon logo on the box. I slowly picked the box and found the name and address sticker. As the box was half broken, I could see a toy box inside. It was some kind of toy train. That reminded me of my 1st toy train which my aunt had brought for me. This certainly belonged to a kid. I decided to take the box home.

On reaching home I narrated the whole story to my mother. She checked the sticker on the box she gave her phone and dialed the number it was Ms. meheta's box. My mom gave her the description of the parcel. Mrs. Meheta was delighted to know that her parcel was in safe hands she even thanked me as the toy train was a suspense birthday gift for her son.

My mom shared our address with her to Mrs. Meheta could come and pick her parcel. I was extremely overjoyed to know that the gift would bring a smile on the child's face.
